Diane,
 I just want to say that you are one of the sharpest dressing girls I've seen in a long time. I always considered it a privilege to know you, even though we didn't get to know each other that well.
 Take good care of yourself this summer and BE-Good. Don't EVER CHANGE your SWEET PERSONALITY!
 MAY God BLESS
 you
 TONY PASSARO

Liane,

I don't actually know you yet but you're a living doll. Your personality is really sharp - I can tell. I wish we could hurry up and become real close friends!!
Oh! Don't mind me if I sort of ignore you - I'm very shy. I wish that you were a cheerleader when I played.
I'm waiting for you to write me a long note. Cause I like reading your notes. Yesterday I came down 7th Period just to see you believe it or not.
You're really a sharp looking girl too. Maybe we can get together this week since there is only $\frac{1}{2}$ school day Thurs. Well - we'll get together pretty soon - O.K.

Senior Play

It took us four and a half years and they want it clean by Saturday!

Sic semper tyrannis.

Finigan in the 5th, you're covered.

Anything but Mr. Bukowski!

I'll bring the straw in a minute.

You mean they jump that high?

This chem class gets more interesting as we go along.

Oh look, there's Barbara!

Oh look, a wormie.

Last Will and Testament

SENIOR CLASS 1965.

Dearly beloved, we are gathered here together in the ballowed halls of Benjamin Franklin to pay our last respects, to show gratitude and to leave what few possessions we have to the faculty and to those who will follow in our footsteps.

To Mr. Sabin we're thankful to you
For inspiring speeches and wisdom, too;
For trying to guide us along the right track,
But next year we hope we won't be coming back.
To Mr. Norton upon this fine day
We leave a red and white beret
And a pound and a half of liverwurst
To help make dear old Franklin first.
To Mr. MacConnell, our dean sublime,
We leave a large bottle of bufferine.
To Mr. Cohen it would be a great boon
If he had a PA to keep in his room.
And to Miss Martens now we say
We shall miss you, come what may.
For dear Mrs. Saflund we have something, too.
We leave a starting block for you.
We wish you good luck and even much more
With all of the dancers upon the floor.
Dancers, keep in your own places;
Remember to keep those open spaces.
Dear Mrs. Saflund and her yardstick new
Will be there also watching you.
To Dr. Kaplan, whom we leave behind
A copy of Lovejoy's, a college to find.
And when he finds it, let him tell all,
So we won't be working in the coal mines next fall.
Mrs. Johnson we'll make glad,
With notes of the meetings that we've had.
And to our adviser, Mr. Mousso,
Although we all hate to do so,
We leave lots of vanilla fudge
And perhaps some bribes for a future judge.
Mrs. Koch tra la la la la
La la la la de la la.
To Mr. Koch we're very sorry
We couldn't beg or even borry
Anything to suit your taste
So we will end now very post haste.
To Mr. Iman a can of brass polish
TO SHINE THE BADGE AFFIXED TO HIS FRONT
BUMPER.
Poor Mrs. Zona, she's in such a spin

For all of the books she has had sandwiched in.
So we will leave her some real mayonnaise
In a great effort to help shake her daze.
And for Mr. Lomio, whom we all applaud,
We will make arrangements to send him a-broad.
To Mr. Dagon, who has a fine spouse,
We'll leave him some levis to wear in the house.
And to Mrs. Dagon, who lives in the house,
We leave her some track shoes to kickout her spouse.
For Mrs. Smith we have a fine gag;
We leave background music for the pledge to the flag.
And Mr. Scamell will raise such a clamour
When he hears this song: "If I Had a Hammer".
Because Mr. Morehouse resented our cheers
We leave a recording of "Get out of here's."
To Mrs. Hoover, who goes by the book,
We leave her a page full of Gobbledygook.
Oh, Mr. Bukowski, he's such a fine feller
So we leave his poor wife a key to the celler.
To Miss Philippone since the weather's been damp
We leave some new costumes wrapped up in a stamp.
To Mr. McHugh, though it might be insane,
We leave soft-soled slippers and a big walking cane.
Oh, dear Mr. Gullo, may you never roam,
For come Halloween, we're invading your home
In costumes of season at your door we'll stand,
With a bottle of Seagram's Seven Crown in our hands.
And to Mr. Fellows, we leave ninty four Illicit seniors, who worked in bookstore.
For dear Miss Fierro, we leave some "Grow Pup"
And we truly hope that in this world she'll rise up.
And to next year's Freshmen, whom we all adore,
We'll put bars on the windows and locks on the doors.
And to next year's Sophomores, a bunch of wise fools,
We leave them a Bible, to stick by the rules.
To next year's Juniors, we leave a fine debt,
So when we're through singing, they'll never forget.
And for the Seniors, we'll put up a fight,
So they can have dances with very dim lights.
And so dear Franklin, we must leave you now,
But when we pass you, we'll all take a bow.

Dear Diane —

I'm so glad I got to know you this year. You sure helped liven up Mr. Mac's office (not that it ever really got dull). It would be great if we had the same free periods next year.

Diane,

Well, kid, any year has passed which, by my calculations, leaves us with just two more lovely years to go. We have been pretty good friends for three whole years now and I know that our friendship will continue to grow and thrive. We've experienced many things which includes heartache and joys but we have survived them all.

You're a doll of a kid and have a personality which suits you to a "T." I know you'll succeed with everything (most inapartant - the "FELLAS"). Just think maybe this summer you'll last with one guy for a month (YAK.)

Diane,

Well kid you've did it. You made cheer squad and you've gotten acquainted with Sam. You are an interesting person always peppy and smiley.

Diane you a real cute sweet girl who deserves the best. May your every desire come true.
Next year I hope

your company. I really enjoy

SPORTS

Diane,
It has been great knowing you these past years and sharing many many experiences with you.

Your bubbly personality will get you very far in life.

Best of luck in all you do.

See ya' in the summer.

Love ya,

Karel

Dear Diane,

Gee! Another year has gone by all ready. We've only got two more to go! This year was tremendous, though.

Diane, you're a real sweet kid. In fact, you're wonderful, cute, understanding, thoughtful OH! You're just GREAT! You've got a personality that will get you far!

Gosh, as I look back, this year is "chock-full of memories". We really had a swingin' time in Chemistry (when you were in it) and English, well that's another story! How could you ever forget Fraser!?! He was an idiot, wasn't he?

Well, I hope we get in more classes together next year cuz' I'm sure we could have a ball! I'll be looking for you this summer! We'll just have to have some parties!

So till next year - Best of Luck Always &
May God Keep You Safe!

Love Ya!

Carol Crisci

NEVER BEFORE HAS IT
BEEN SO NECESSARY TO KNOW
HOW TO GET A JOB!

Now comes the time of decision for your career ahead. It will probably be one of the most important decisions you will be called upon to make. Fortunately, you live in a land where freedom of choice and opportunity are almost unlimited.

Of course, anyone's "first job" is to get his basic education. Congratulations to you who get this job well done.

NOW, HOW ABOUT THE NEXT STEP?

Career opportunities in Rochester, with its many and diverse industries, commercial organizations and professions, should interest almost any student. Most Rochester companies are recognized for their high standards and advanced technology. It follows that standards for employment are high too—and a good education tops the list.

An employer knows what kind of people he is looking for. The student ready for a career should have an equally good idea of what he or she is looking for. Consulting with parents, counselors, friends, and with employers themselves will reveal what kind of positions are available in what kind of organizations.

Evaluating your abilities and appraising your readiness for the career of your choice is the key to your future. There is no door it cannot unlock—when the key fits!

To a real wonderful girl with a real sparkling personality, I express all the luck + happiness in the world. You're a very cute + sweet gal who deserves a lot! It's been a riot in French class + chem. (for a while, anyways!) class + I just know you'll succeed in all your endeavors always. Take good care + never change. May God Bless & protect ya, always,

Mike Flynn.

Just in your lifetime

you have known great acts of violence—Korea, Hungary, Tibet, Viet Nam. And you have been aware of great acts of human kindness—the Marshall Plan, Berlin air lift, the Peace Corps.

There have been horrible inventions to kill man, like the hydrogen bomb. And marvelous inventions to save his life, like polio vaccine.

Man has flown higher and dived lower than ever before. He has traveled faster and farther.

All in your lifetime.

Advances have often been striking, and reversals tragic, but you had no part in them. You were only a spectator.

Now, you have a chance to play a responsible role in events of your generation—events that promise to overshadow anything that went before.

Unlike the modest opportunities of the past, yours will be limited only by two key factors.

One is education; the other resourcefulness—keys that together will enable you to unlock any combination; to plan, to weigh, to judge, to think.

Most of all to communicate.

Your school has tried to do its part. Now it's up to you. Growing organizations like Xerox, leaders in mankind's continuing search for better communications, are looking for educated talent—the more educated the better.

Through the science of xerography, we have made enormous strides during your lifetime. To continue, we will need educated, resourceful, imaginative people.

You, perhaps. Good luck, graduate!

Hi Diane!

You can't imagine how glad I am that we've become such great friends this past year! you ~~are~~^{there} are really very un-describable - only one really good word to describe you and that is great - I'm real glad you made cheerleading, you really deserve to make it after all the trouble you went through, namely getting stuck with "mono"! Oh, please don't think I'm mocking you because I'm not, only joking around as usual & goofing off!!

Thanks alot for all the great times we've had going uptown together, how would I ever have gotten a new wardrobe without you? I'm looking forward to going uptown with you often this summer, but mostly I'm looking forward to going down the beach everyday this summer!!

You're a real sweet person with a tremendous personality!! Really, I can't say much more about you because I think you know what I think of you by now!

This past year I guess we've both had our share of parties, especially you! It's been a riot going to so many dances etc & I'm looking forward to going to many more especially this summer!

Well, all I can say now is that I hope we're as good of friends next year ^{forever} as we are this year! Have a great summer & keep in touch

Love, n' luck

Barb

and, we've lived through another year - and boy have we lived! We've laughed together, went to parties together, & even cried together. I'll never forget the Cambridge Trio & that Wednesday night. I guess that can be put under "experience"

As for the fun we've had - how about the play at B.K.? Poor Pat!! Or how about the Clover dance - dear Bruce - I should have told him you'd give him a ride. Imagine the results!! And our regular visits to dear old Kuschel & his "romeo" assistant - Dr. Kodesh. Those 3 men must think we're both insane! Especially after you stuck those little round things (●) all over his office. I'll really miss you if I have to go there alone when you get your "antennas" off. - But I guess Steve will keep me company - remember him?

I've enjoyed sharing my problems with you. But yours are always so interesting that I enjoy worrying about them with you - it's almost as exciting as "Peyton Place" - one of my favorites shows. You give excellent advice too. I've tried it - & it works every time. Must be your intuition or something like that - maybe ESP.

To get a little corny, I really cherish our friendship. You're so much fun to be with - even if I feel depressed you can cheer me up. You're always doing something exciting and you're just bubbling with energy & spirit. You've got a wonderful, sparkling personality & I'm really glad we became such good friends this year.

Don't wish you luck with you-know-who but I'm sure you don't need it.

Keep using your ESP & sweet smile & you'll have the best always.

Love,

Paula

P.S. I'm dying for summer to come! Will have an absolute riot!

Dear Diane
Welcome back!
I've practically fallen asleep in English these past days. I've even answered some questions and that's pretty cool. You've missed some really surt poems in English aren't you sad. I expect you to go home and cry after summer period. Aren't we lucky we've got
Mr. Fraser for our protector in English. I'm waiting for Mr.
Fraser to either like me out or tell me to put your fear over away. Mr Fraser is starting to sound like a broken record. Oh well, lots of luck on your exams and also lots of luck with Sam.

Love you
Carol
Butler

P.S. Have a nice summer!
